

BUREAU OF IMMIGRATION.

The Virginia Report remarks: The State Bureau has been actively engaged in the advancement of the interests for which it was created, and is using every means to secure such information and data for investors and home-seekers as can be utilized. Its latest work is the printing and circulation of a large number of copies of the Act creating the bureau, accompanied with statistical blanks, to be filled in by the recipients, which are sent to the Assessors of the several counties and other prominent parties, and which will enable the bureau to place before inquirers the resources of all sections of the State. It has also issued a large number of circular letters to competent persons throughout the State asking for such general information in relation to the Agricultural and stock interests as may be obtainable. The members of the bureau seem to be alive to the duties that pertain to their positions, and good results will no doubt result from their labors.

If the people throughout Nevada give to these officials that encouragement they are entitled to in their laudable efforts to induce immigration we may expect in the near future to see such an invasion of desirable immigrants as will astonish old-timers, and a boom in real estate that will vie with that which sprung into existence in the last few years in California. Let every one propel the ball with a vigorous push and help advertise the illimitable and varied resources of the Silver State, and our population will rapidly increase, our fertile valleys will yield the rich treasures which only require the labors of the agriculturalist to glean from them, and our importance and rights as a factor in national affairs will not be questioned. We have all the endowments of nature that are requisite to the building up of a grand, populous and wealthy commonwealth, and all it requires at our hands is union of purpose and indefatigable energy and labor employed in the right direction.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The row over the location of the National Democratic Convention is a good thing for the Republican party. Missouri is a Democratic State with 33,000 majority. The Convention at St. Louis can not help that State much, while the fact that it did not go to Chicago will keep Illinois solid in the Republican ranks. The Pacific Coast built great hopes on getting it, and there is a pall of gloom hanging over all the Democrats West of the Rockies. Much bad blood and bitter feeling has been engendered, and it bodes no good for the Democracy this Fall.

The Case Against Jay Gould.

New York, Feb. 23.—The Grand Jury this morning took up the case of Jay Gould, Russell Sage and others charged with the grand larceny of $3,000,000 of the Denver-Pacific stock. Sidney Dillon was one of the three witnesses summoned in the suit of John S. Stanton vs. Jay Gould, Russell Sage, Missouri-Pacific Union Trust Company, Fort Scott and Wichita and Great Western Railroad. Judge Patterson has granted an injunction, restraining the Missouri-Pacific, Jay Gould and other defendants from selling, transferring or disposing of any of the bonds of the Fort Scott road, supposed to be secured by the income of the second mortgage, or from delivering any of the shares of the capital stock of the company to any other person than the plaintiff.

Mrs. Cleveland has formed a society, the object of which is the elevation of women in India. Seeing the condition of many of the working women and girls in America, somebody ought to send Mrs. Cleveland a copy of Dickens' "Bleak House," with the passages about Borioboola Gha distinctly marked. —Daily Report.
